Sakthi Polytechnic College founded by Arutchelvar Dr N Mahalingam has carved a niche for itself in the dissemination of Polytechnic Education to the youth of this region. The Institution is carrying forward its legacy with indomitable spirit under the stewardship of Dr M Manickam. It gives me great pleasure to offer my message of felicitation to the Annual Magazine of this Institution.

It is an irrefutable fact that Sakthi Polytechnic College has ushered in improvements in the living standards of the people in this area, which was otherwise generally underdeveloped before its inception. I firmly believe that the grass roots of the technology and innovation must reach the common man thereby paving way for a developed, literate and noble society. I am happy that the institution has done this and something more by inspiring its students, and by kindling their passion for innovating.

Dear Sir,

" Message of Felicitation "

We appreciate the energy, enthusiasm and efforts of your Staff, Students and Management in making SIT Polytechnic College as an outstanding educational establishment in our region.

Releasing a college annual magazine year after year is a sweet but, delicate task. It is a labour of love and majestic memoir for the future. It is a joy to look in to the contents of a college annual magazine because it is a compendium of literary works and record of achievements of students and staff.

All the stake holders like current and past students, present and previous employees and well-wishers eagerly browse the magazine with numerous expectations and longings. Therefore, putting everything happened in the college during a whole year as a time capsule in print form is an unenviable mission.

Sakthi Group of Enterprises and Educational Institution are changing lives for better in the regions they serve; 4 decades of yeoman services of SIT Polytechnic College are highly commendable. We wish you a dynamic and eventful future in the decades to come.

It is our pleasure and privilege to offer our message of felicitation to your marvelous magazine.

Hats off to you one and all !!!
