I sincerely thank our Principal and Management for their constant support and encouragement. They have always been the source of energy for the students to take part in various level competitions.

Our faculty members are our sources of strength and fortitude. We thank each and every one of them for their sporting spirit. The non-teaching staff has also been helpful. Thanks to all of them.

I conclude this report by thanking the almighty for showering his blessings on us and I pray to him the annals of time would bear the distinguished mark of SIT's excellence in the years to come.

THANK YOU FOR WATCHING
