

READRES CLUB

The Sakthi Polytechnic College Readers Club was established to promote reading habits, literary appreciation, and lifelong learning among students. It provides a structured platform for students to explore diverse literary works, participate in discussions, and enhance their intellectual, analytical, and communication skills. The club regularly organizes activities such as book discussions, book reviews, author interactions, literary competitions, and visits to book fairs and exhibitions, providing students with opportunities for active literary engagement.

By encouraging students to read widely, exchange ideas, and share their perspectives, the Readers Club fosters a vibrant reading culture and an inclusive learning community on campus. Participation in the club enhances students' academic performance, critical thinking, creativity, and overall learning experience. The club is open to all students who are interested in reading and wish to broaden their knowledge while developing their analytical, communication, and expressive abilities through collaborative learning.

During the Academic Year 2025–26, the Readers Club continued its commitment to promoting a culture of reading and learning by organizing a variety of literary and motivational programmes. Major activities included an educational visit to the Erode Book Festival and the celebration of National Youth Day. These programmes encouraged students to explore a wide range of books, interact with experts, and appreciate the value of reading as a lifelong habit. They also inspired students to develop leadership qualities, ethical values, self-confidence, and a sense of social responsibility, thereby contributing to their personal, academic, and professional development. Through these initiatives, the club created an enriching environment that nurtured curiosity, independent learning, and informed decision-making among students. The Readers Club continues to serve as a valuable platform for fostering a lifelong love for reading and preparing students to become knowledgeable, responsible, and socially conscious citizens.

Visit to Erode Book Festival

Date: 08 August 2025

The Readers Club organized an educational visit to the Erode Book Festival held at C.N. College, Erode. All Readers Club members enthusiastically participated in the programme. The festival provided students with an opportunity to explore a vast collection of books covering literature, science, technology, competitive examinations, biographies, self-development, and general knowledge. Students interacted with publishers and booksellers, learned about current publishing trends, and discovered books that support both academic excellence and personal enrichment. The visit motivated students to cultivate regular reading habits and appreciate the value of books as lifelong companions.

During the visit, students were encouraged to examine a variety of publications from leading publishers and compare different editions, authors, and subject resources. They actively discussed their reading interests, exchanged book recommendations with their peers, and gained valuable insights into selecting quality books for higher studies and career development. The exposure to a vibrant literary environment inspired students to develop a deeper interest in reading, enhance their knowledge beyond the classroom, and recognize the importance of continuous learning in their personal and professional lives.

National Youth Day Celebration

Date: 12 January 2026

The Readers Club celebrated National Youth Day to commemorate the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. The programme aimed to inspire students to develop leadership qualities, self-confidence, discipline, and social responsibility.

Mr. M. Palanichamy, Assistant Manager – Safety, Sakthi Sugar Pvt. Ltd., Appakudal, delivered a motivational address emphasizing the importance of positive thinking, ethical values, lifelong learning, and leadership in achieving success. Students actively participated in the interactive session and gained valuable insights into personality development and nation-building. The speaker also encouraged students to cultivate a regular reading habit, stating that books are powerful tools for acquiring knowledge, strengthening character, and broadening perspectives. Inspirational quotes and life lessons from Swami Vivekananda were shared to motivate students to pursue excellence with determination and integrity. The programme concluded with an engaging question-and-answer session, where students interacted with the resource person and clarified their doubts. The event left the participants inspired to become responsible citizens, lifelong learners, and confident leaders capable of contributing positively to society.
